Prof. Kavita Holey, a beacon of dynamic leadership in the realm of Sanskrit studies. As the Professor Dean of the Faculty of Sanskrit & Other Languages, Prof. Holey exemplifies dedication and excellence in academia.

With a unique background in engineering, Prof. Holey's profound passion for Sanskrit led her to forge a remarkable career in this ancient discipline. Since the establishment of KKSU, she has played a pivotal role in various statutory positions, including BPD Director, Campus Director, and Registrar, amassing over 24 years of invaluable academic and administrative experience.

Prof. Holey is a distinguished expert in Sanskrit Literature, Poetics, Sanskrit meters, and dramaturgy. Her scholarly contributions include the completion of five research projects, the publication of over 50 books, and the authorship of 70 research papers. Notably, she has guided five PhD candidates to successful completion. Her research excellence was recognized with the Best Research Paper award at an International Conference in Singapore.

Her leadership is characterized by unwavering commitment, integrity, and a practical outlook, complemented by acute administrative and technical skills. Prof. Holey's result-oriented approach, exceptional human management abilities, and swift decision-making have significantly benefited KKSU, particularly in organizing national and international conferences, including the AIOC 2020 and the Mahakavi Kalidas Sanskrit Sadhana Puraskar program. Under her guidance as the NAAC Coordinator, KKSU achieved an A+ grade, marking a golden milestone in her career.

As a renowned expert and consultant for NAAC, Prof. Holey is frequently sought after by esteemed universities and institutions for her insights and guidance in the accreditation process. Her accolades include the Global Awards 2023 as a Distinguished Professor, the Bhasha Sanman Puraskar, and the Outstanding HoD of the Year 2020, among others.

Her contributions are a true boon to our institution, and we are proud to have her as a guiding force in our academic community.
